The 120th Annual COMMENCEMENT
of Cedarville University

CLASS of 2016

SATURDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND SIXTEEN
AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

DODEN FIELD HOUSE
CEDARVILLE, OHIO

*"He gives power to the faint,
and to him who has no might he increases strength.
Even youths shall faint and be weary,
and young men shall fall exhausted;
but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength;
they shall mount up with wings like eagles;
they shall run and not be weary;
they shall walk and not faint."*

Isaiah 40:29-31 ESV

WELCOME TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CLASS OF 2016

Today we celebrate the 120th commencement of Cedarville University. In 1887, God led five men to found Cedarville College. They envisioned an institution that would provide an outstanding education with a biblical worldview. That purpose continues at Cedarville University 129 years later.

This group of seniors walking across the stage today has endured some challenging times and some joyous occasions. Through them all, they have demonstrated a strong faith in God, a strong sense of calling, and a determination to finish what they started. This group of graduates is truly not ashamed of the Gospel (Rom. 1:16). To all the family and friends who are here to celebrate with them, we welcome you to this ceremony. These graduates reflect well upon the parents, grandparents, mentors, and local churches that have invested into their lives.

Joy and I, along with the Cedarville family, congratulate the class of 2016. We know that you will transition into the workplace or graduate school taking the bold message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ with you. Sometimes transition can be difficult and even scary. Let me remind you of what you already know. God is faithful. You can trust Him. The Lord will be with you and His Word will sustain you.

The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever. (Isa. 40:8)

I pray God's blessings upon you as you embark upon the mission to which you have been called, for the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ.

By Faith,

A handwritten signature in gold ink that reads "Thomas White".

Thomas White, Ph.D.
President, Cedarville University

THOMAS WHITE BIOGRAPHY

Thomas White became President of Cedarville University on July 1, 2013. His desire is to lead Cedarville University in training students to love the Word of God and have a passion for fulfilling the Great Commission of Jesus Christ.

A systematic theologian by training with a focus on the doctrine of the Church, Dr. White has served in many roles in the local church, preached itinerantly, and owned and operated multiple karate schools in South Carolina. He earned Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Divinity degrees from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina, and Bachelor of Arts and Associate of Arts degrees from Anderson University in Anderson, South Carolina.

Prior to coming to Cedarville, Dr. White served as Vice President for Student Services and Communications, as well as Associate Professor of Systematic Theology, at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

Dr. White is married to Joy (Martin) White, who earned a Master of Divinity degree in women's studies and a Master of Theology degree in systematic theology from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has authored a commentary on Acts and served as the Women's Studies Coordinator at Southeastern Seminary. The Whites have two children, Rachel and Samuel, and enjoy their dog.

CLASS SONG

Be Still My Soul

Verse One

Be still, my soul; the Lord is
on thy side;
Bear patiently the cross of
grief or pain;
Leave to thy God to order and
provide;
In every change He faithful
will remain.
Be still, my soul; thy best, thy heavenly, Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Verse Two

Be still, my soul; thy God
doth undertake
To guide the future as He has
the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence, let
nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul; the waves
and winds still know
His voice who ruled them
while He dwelt below.

Chorus

In You I rest. In You I found my hope.
In You I trust. You never let me go.
I place my life within Your hands alone.
Be still, my soul.

Verse Three

Be still, my soul; the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with
the Lord,
When disappointment, grief,
and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest
joys restored.
Be still, my soul; when change
and tears are past,
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last.

REVEREND JAMES D. PARKER
BIOGRAPHY

Reverend James D. Parker, Sr., was the first African-American student to apply, then enroll, at Cedarville University. Parker arrived on Cedarville's campus in 1954, leaving his home of Portsmouth, Ohio. His family lost their house to an electrical fire in 1955, causing Parker to leave Cedarville in order to assist his family. During this time, he attended Baptist Bible Seminary in Cleveland, where in 1958 he helped found Good Shepherd Baptist Church, and he graduated from the seminary a year later. Parker then returned to Cedarville in 1963 and graduated the following year.

After Cedarville, Parker continued his lifelong commitment to the ministry. In 1978, he helped found the New Baptist Bible Church in Washington with the bishops of the Conservative Baptist Mission. Currently, Parker serves as an instructor at the Central Baptist Institute in Syracuse, New York, an outreach of Central Baptist Church, where his son-in-law serves as pastor.

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

The colorful academic regalia dates from the first European universities in the Middle Ages. Academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times and is traditionally used for graduation convocations. The mortarboard is the standard cap. The tassel color, as established by an intercollegiate commission, indicates the subject field.

arts, history, letters, languages	white
business, commerce.....	drab
communication.....	silver gray
criminal justice.....	navy blue
education	light blue
engineering	orange
fine arts	dark brown
journalism	maroon
music	pink
nursing.....	apricot
philosophy	royal blue
physical education, allied health.....	sage green
religion.....	scarlet
science, mathematics, psychology.....	golden yellow
social work, political science, public administration.....	citron
doctor of arts.....	gold
doctor of education.....	gold
doctor of pharmacy.....	olive green
doctor of philosophy.....	gold
doctor of theology.....	gold

The length of the hood and the width of the velvet indicate the level of the degree. The doctor's hood is quite long, has two tails, and has five-inch-wide velvet. The master's hood is shorter than the doctor's and has three-inch-wide velvet. The bachelor's hood is shorter yet and has two-inch-wide velvet. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study. Blue indicates a doctoral degree. Dark brown indicates a Master of Arts degree. White indicates a Bachelor of Arts or a Master of Arts degree. Scarlet indicates a Bachelor of Divinity degree or a Master of Divinity degree. Yellow indicates a Bachelor of Science degree. The colors in the lining of the hood are the university colors.

The gown's traditional color is black. The distinguishing feature of the master's gown is the tippet sleeve. The doctor's gown has two distinguishing features. It is cut much fuller than the bachelor's or the master's gown and has velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck, and down the front. These panels may be black or the color that symbolizes the subject field in which the degree was earned.

Some regalia represent academic awards that have been conferred from universities outside the United States, notably from Europe. Universities in Europe have not undergone the standardization in academic dress that was introduced in the United States. Each European university retains the right to design unique and distinctive regalia for its graduates. This results in a wide variety of hood and gown colors. The crest of the university may be woven into the hood or panels in the gown. Gowns are worn open, and formal attire is worn underneath the gown; women wear black skirts and white blouses, while men wear a formal suit or national costume.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Students graduating with academic honors are wearing a gold cord. A student who earns a grade point average of 3.50 or better is graduated “with honor”; one who earns a grade point average of 3.75 or better is graduated “with high honor”; and one who earns a grade point average of 3.90 or better is graduated “with highest honor.” A student must be in residence at least two full years (60 semester hours) in order to qualify for honors.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

Adopted in 1894, the seal reflects the commitment of the first Board of Trustees to the cause of Christ. Prominently displayed on the seal are the words “PRO CORONA ET FOEDERE CHRISTI,” translated “For the Crown and the Covenant of Christ,” as well as a crown to signify His preeminence. The trustees desired to emphasize that Christ was the One for whom Cedarville College existed.

The board of the Baptist Bible Institute, after taking over the operation of Cedarville in 1953, retained the original seal of the college, acknowledging that the desire of Cedarville’s founders was theirs as well. They then surrounded the seal with the motto of the Baptist Bible Institute, “For the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ,” to visually remind those who observed the seal of the common commitment by both institutions to Jesus Christ.

The seal was updated in 2000 when Cedarville College became Cedarville University.
